Received and placed on file.

January 4, 1932.

The Honorable Mayor and City Council of the City of Lansing, City Hall, Lansing, Michigan.

Gentlemen:

Complying with your request, we submit herewith suggestions for reducing the street lighting cost to the city:

1. Eliminate those lights in front of

A collaborative digitization project of the City of Lansing and Forest Parke Library and Archives - Capital Area District Libraries vacant property where they is very little traffic. The amount saved will be the pro rata amount set up in the city budget for the particular kind and size of light.

2. Refrain from ordering boulevard light installations on newly paved streets unless the streets are major streets and have considerable traffic.

3. If all the present lights are dimmed to 70% of present intensity, a saving of $7,648.80 per year could be effected. This would not be as efficient lighting as the city is now getting, and its influence on police protection should be considered.

The city now pays the bare cost of maintaining and lighting public streets, paying one cent per kilowatt-hour for the energy actually consumed at the lamp. This is a lower rate than the water department pays for 24-hour per day pumping.

We will be glad to demonstrate 70% lighting any evening convenient to your honorable body.

Respectfully yours,
BOARD OF WATER & ELECTRIC LIGHT COMMISSIONERS,
O. E. ECKERT,
Superintendent.

Referred to Committee on Pubic Lighting.

ANNUAL REPORT

ANNUAL REPORT OF THE CITY MARKET AND SCALES

January 4, 1932.

To the Honorable Mayor and City Council of the City of Lansing.
Gentlemen:

The year of 1931 has been an exceptionally successful year for the Lansing City Market, both from the standpoint of the sellers and the buyers. A greater number of sellers have registered at the Market than in any previous year. More people have availed themselves of the opportunity to purchase produce direct from the farm than ever before.

During the greater part of the year it was impossible to accommodate all the farmers that desired to exhibit their produce for sale. The market should occupy a whole city block to make room for the number of sellers desiring space and afford parking facilities for the buying public.

It is also essential that a portion of the market should be enclosed to successfully operate a winter market.

The receipts received from stall renters, leased by the season, is $3,202.75. Receipts from daily rentals, $3,668.75. Received from Lorenz Bros. for nine months rent at $15.00 per month, $135. For use of market for 20 auctions at $3.00 per day, $60.00. Making total receipts from the market $7,066.50. This is an increase of $1,154.05 over any previous year.

Receipts from the City Scales is $406.00. Total receipts from Market and Scales, $7,472.50.

Respectfully submitted,
F. V. HAYFORD,
City Market and Weighmaster.

Received and placed on file.

MAYOR'S MESSAGE

Gentlemen of the Council:

In entering upon the second year of my administration as mayor of this city, I desire to express my apprecia tion to the good people of Lansing for the manifestation of their confidence by electing me to this important office, and for their uniform courtesy extended during the year I have been mayor. I also wish to thank this council for its conservatism and untiring efforts to conduct the business affairs of Lansing in a creditable manner under most trying conditions.

I need not tell the people of this city, nor yourselves, the problem that has been uppermost in our minds and thoughts—the large amount of unem ployment among our citizens. The Welfare Department has necessarily claimed our most earnest attention and all other matters have been subordinated to that.

We have at the same time tried to be mindful of the expenses of the taxpayer in keping the usual and ordinary public expense as low as was consis tent with good management. We have refrained from entering upon any extended public improvement program for the reason that, under present conditions, we feel it would be unwise from the standpoint of good business to increase the burden of taxation at this time.

It will be remembered that a few years ago the State of Michigan decreed that the City of Lansing, along with other cities of this state, must make some arrangements to dispose of its sewage in some other way than draining it into the Grand River. This necessitated a differently constructed sewer system.. The change in this system so as to effect the results required by the state, must be completed by the year 1934. The City of Lansing has been ahead on the proposed schedule of such change, but this council deemed it expedient, by reason of the unemployment situation existing, in order not only to furnish needed employment to our people, but to purchase material at reasonable prices, to further advance this program, and such public improvements as are being made, have been chiefly toward that end. While these improvements need not of necessity have been made this year, yet with this twofold object in mind—economy and cost of construction, and the furnishing of employment—we have endeavored to relieve the drain on our Welfare Department.

The welfare problem overshadows all other difficulties at present, and claims our most serious consideration. With the unemployment conditions cleared up, all other matters of city affairs are simply questions of good, conscientious business judgment, but the problem of welfare finds sentiment mingled with the business of government, and it is right and proper that we keep in mind that we are also public servants, and to the public as a whole we owe a duty of economical administration of public affairs.

In addition, let me say further that this matter of welfare will demand our constant attention for some time in the future. I see no prospects of immediate relief from the effects of this condition, for should it be cleared up at once, its effects will be reflected in general conditions for some time to come. In saying this I do not feel that I am unduly pessimistic, but that I am making a statement of facts that will be borne out by experience.

I am asking the good people of this city to co-operate with us in our endeavor to discharge our duty to those in need of aid from the public, and we ask those receiving aid to also do their share in this present important function of government. In the multitude of details that must be given attention in the welfare department, it is inevitable that mistakes will occur. It is impossible to entirely escape fraud and deception; worthy people may have been refused aid at times, and unworthy ones may have imposed upon us, but we believe such errors have been reduced to a minimum, and that in the main a most difficult undertaking has been handled as efficiently as could be expected under the circumstances.

To give you some information upon the necessity of retrenchment in public expenditures, let me call your attention to the fact that our welfare expenses for 1931 amounted to $356,000, and that $126,000 was expended for the year 1930, an increase in expenditures of that department for the year 1931 of $230,000. This will disclose to you somewhat the serious consequences of continued unemployment and business depression.

The amount of delinquent city taxes on January 1st, 1931, was approximately $638,000. On January 1st, 1932, delinquent city taxes were in the neighborhood of $816,000, an increase of practically $178,000 over the one year period, so that when I urge upon you the necessity of being economical, I believe the reasons are very apparent. These figures are indicative of the effects of the depression in this community, and should challenge our earnest attention and call for the exercise of our very best judgment.

The bonded indebtedness of this city has been increased during the year 1931 by the amount of $304,000, and this increase has been brought about almost entirely on account of welfare conditions. Of the total amount of bonded indebtedness of this city, which is approximately $2,407,000, $2,033,000 will eventually be retired by taxation, and the balance of the bonded debt will be retired by special assessment. The figures in the two paragraphs above can be verified by figures in the comptrollers' department.

It is also my judgment that, under the conditions as I have indicated herein, there should be a reduction in salaries of officers and employes all down the line, not even excepting my own which is fixed by the charter. In harmony with our program of economy and retrenchment that must of necessity follow the conditions of depression and unemployment, it has occurred to me that a reasonable reduction of salaries of city officers and employes should be made in all departments of our government, and I feel that none of us should complain if this reduction is applied to each officer and employe uniformly. In this respect, however, I call your attention to the fact that this city is now and has been for a long time paying less in salaries to its officers and employes than in any other city of its class of which I have any knowledge. We have always been quite conservative regarding salaries, as well as upon other functions of government involving financial outlays, which accounts for our present thrifty financial condition. A reduction of ten per cent in salaries in all departments would amount to practically, in round figures, $150,000. Construction cost, which is represented by labor, would amount to $35,000, and, omitting this item, would still make a net saving to the City of Lansing of approximately $115,000 for the year. I would recommend the omission of this item of construction cost, which largely represents labor, because I feel they have already suffered a reduction in that respect out of proportion to their just rights.

The departments of the City of Lansing have co-operated with one another, and with this Council, in creating as much employment for the unemployed as it was possible to do. The Park Department has, during the past year, completed and opened Sycamore golf course for the use of the city, the work and improvements having been made entirely from income from golf course funds. The highways in Potter and Bancroft parks are widened and re-surfaced, all of the construction cost thereof being operated through the welfare department for the benefit of the unemployed. This department was also able, by means of the extra labor that could be furnished to the unemployed, to make a noticeable improvement along the banks of the Grand River through the heart of the city, and also along Moores River Drive, near Francis park. At Potter park extensive grading was carried out by the same means, making a much needed improvement and adding to the usable park area. These improvements in park conditions have been very much appreciated by the inhabitants of the city, and there has been an unusually fine attendance at all the parks during the year because of the program carried out through this department.

The program of the Recreation Department has shown a notable increase in the use of recreation area of the Park Department and in the school buildings of the Board of Education. The past year saw an increase of four summer playgrounds over the previous year, making fifteen in all. The addition of four schools, brings the total to ten schools in which recreation programs are conducted during the winter months. Baseball, junior baseball, basketball, indoor baseball, diamond ball under floodlights, playground movies and bands, the playground circus and pageant, sports day, recreation clubs, badminton, dramatics, golf and tennis classes, and the new program of girl's athletics, all drew capacity audiences and provided a means of wholesome recreation for player and spectator.

Generally speaking, I am convinced that conditions in the government and the management of the city's affairs, are as good as could ordinarily be hoped for. I believe the departments, under our charter, are well balanced and wisely and economically administered; that there is no officer or employe engaged in the city service who is not essential to the city's welfare; that there is not an officer or employe whose office or place is a mere sinecure; that there has not been an office or a place created for purely political purposes. But occasionally there will be rumors afloat and criticisms made of the conduct of public affairs, or about reckless and useless expenditure of public funds. Most of such rumors are without foundation, and much of the criticisms are unworthy of notice. But it is well and good business judgment for cities to take stock of themselves as well as for private corporations to take inventories. This is a changing world, conditions change in harmony with man's progress; what was a luxury once may have become an imperative necessity, and what was a necessity a few years ago may have become obsolete. A survey of all the branches and activities of the city government might be profitable. It might enable us to eliminate the unnecessary things, and add to ourselves those things more useful. If there are any weaknesses in our form or quality of government, it would bring them out into the open, and to that end, set the minds of our citizen's, as well as our own, at rest in that regard. A survey of this nature could be made either by a committee of this Council or by a committee of representative citizens. This subject is simply referred to in the message as food for thought for this aldermanic body.

I have also created a new committee on elections. The Legislature of 1931 made some important changes in the election laws of this state. By reason of such changes, the work of the city clerk and her registrars, is increased, and the operation of the election laws has become more complicated, and in my judgment, this committee will be a necessity, at least until we become familiar with these new election law changes.

I have discontinued the committee on service because that department has been placed under the supervision of the Superintendent of Public Works, and therefore avoids the necessity of the existence of such a committee.

I am also of the opinion that we should in the future consider the advisability of making some amendments to the city charter regarding changes in the election laws. I believe that it would be wise to provide for an eliminating primary in case more than two or three candidates present themselves for the same office. I am of the opinion that this would simplify matters for the election and would be more satisfactory to everybody concerned, and I am inviting your attention to this particular subject at this time so that, at the proper time, if in the judgment of this council such amendment would be wise, the same may be prepared and presented to the people as required by the charter.

Let us all sincerely hope that the near future will bring the dawn of a better day, and I am thoroughly satisfied that we will continue in the future, as we have in the past, to exert our best efforts to the end that Lansing will maintain its place as a city of which we will all have reason to be justly proud.

Respectfully submitted,
PETER F. GRAY,
Mayor.

ANNUAL REPORT

To the Honorable Mayor and City Council of the City of Lansing.
Gentlemen:

Every mindful of present economic conditions, I submit this report to your honorable body with a keen sense of appreciation of the cooperation shown me during the past year. I would ask you to keep in mind, while perusing the report, that we have operated under severe handicaps during 1931. Despite this fact, however, the department has functioned with a regular and efficient operation to the extent that the year has shown much progress.

Chief among these was considerable work done at the Capital City airport, the purchase of the gravel pit near Groesbeck golf course which has effected a saving of several thousand dollars, the construction of several thousand square feet of sidewalk, and a general program of public works activities contingent upon the efficient operation of the municipal government.

We have attempted to cooperate with the city welfare department to the fullest extent in providing labor of indigent relief. In this respect the department has supplied jobs to hundreds of men who otherwise would have had no employmnet.

Chief among the operations at the airport was the laying of several hundred feet of drain tile to carry surplus water from the land. This changed the flying field from a muddy morass to one on which planes could land and take off in practically any and all weather. Workmen of the public departments spread 1,721 yards of gravel, 2,745 yards of cinders and 61 yards of crushed stone on the airport property. The department has employed from 50 to 60 men daily at the airport since October 1st. Three trucks were used to haul earth from necessary cuts, a maintainer was used in grading and the runways were cindered and drained with tile. Cost of this work amounted to approximately $8,848.59.

Because of economic conditions, sidewalk construction dropped off considererably from other years. Amount assessed in December 1931, totaled $8,328.54, to be assessed in June 1932, is $1,424.29. Intersections and approaches repaired in the various wards were $790.90. Repairs made and billed out totaled $3,641.71. Total cost of this work is $14,185.44.

Other projects carried out by the department as welfare aids included the repairing and repainting of street signs. Many city-owned trucks were also painted. The department also supplied a number of men to cut wood for indigent relief and to cultivate a large potata crop.

The new municipal gravel pit was purchased in March for $6,000 and provided much additional work for welfare men. A total of 15,702 yards of sand and gravel were taken from the pit during the summer months effecting a considerable saving to the city. In addition to the sand and gravel, 1,177 yards of fill earth and 296 yards of crushed stone were also removed.

Some idea of the great saving effected by the purchase of this gravel pit can be gained when it is known that in 1930 the city purchased $18,263.96 worth of gravel while in 1931 but $5,490.05 was used in buying gravel. At the same time, the greatest part of the 1931 expenditure was made before the municipal pit was placed in operation.

Space for additional dumping facilities of refuse was loaned to the City by the Hunter Gravel Company. It is located on Clifford street at the end of Marcus street.

One of the most important duties of the department is the care of city streets. During the summer, the dust menace on unpaved streets was kept to a minimum through the use of eight carloads of calcium chloride, four sprinkler trucks and three flushers. The flushers were also used for washing paved streets throughout the city.

The departmental payroll for the year totaled $96,615.54 while the service department payroll totaled $16,725.69. Welfare credit payrolls for the year totaled $81,416.16. These monies were credited to the men at the city's welfare department rather than being paid out in actual cash.

Monies received from vending cabinets, telephones, scales, and gum machines totaled $210.47. Permits signed and indexed for street excavations for

A collaborative digitization project of the City of Lansing and Forest Parke Library and Archives - Capital Area District Libraries

Consumers Power Company, Michigan Bell Telephone Company, and Board of Water and Electric Light Commissioners totaled 404.

I also call your attention to the fact that the Service Department of the City has been placed under my charge. This department is now functioning to my satisfaction and is fulfilling what was expected of it when created.

Respectfully submitted,
E. D. KLOCK,
Supt. of Public Works.

Received and placed on file.

Honorable Mayor and Members of the City Council, Lansing, Michigan.

Gentlemen:

On November 4, 1931, we requested that some changes be made in the Traffic Ordinance for the improvement of traffic conditions in the City of Lansing.

We now wish to make the following change in Article 4, page 2 of the request by changing the word THROUGH to STOP. This will make the subject read: "Designate as Stop Streets."

This will remove the only objection to these changes which has been voiced by you.

We hope you will now take some action in regard to these changes so that they may become effective before the usual heavy traffic of spring arrives.

We are also again calling to your attention to the congestion on South Washington Avenue at the street car terminal. We recommend that the street car be stopped at the north end of the swith, unless the switch was removed.

If the switch is removed, the street car should be stopped at the intersection of Smith Avenue.

Yours very truly,
THE TRAFFIC COMMISSION,
J .S. Burns,
C. H. Barber,
M. S. Graham,
H. H. Hardy.

Resolved, that Ald. Smith be and is hereby commended for his efforts to secure repeal or modification of this act, and that this Council endorse the repealing or modification of the Permanent Registration Act.

The Committee on ORDINANCES, to whom was referred the recommendations of the Traffic Commission relative to changes in the Traffic Ordinance, reports as follows:

Relative to congestion on south Washington Avenue at the street car terminal, we recommend that this Council request the Street Railway Company to stop their cars at the north end of the switch, to be done as a try-out.

Paragraph 1 of their communication of November 4th they recommend that no "U" turns be allowed on Washington Avenue from Shiawassee to Kalamazoo Streets, on Michigan Avenue from Capitol Avenue to the bridge. We recommend that the request be denied.

Paragraph 2, relative to "no parking" except on Sundays and Holidays on Washington Avenue from Shiawassee to Kalamazoo; on Capitol Avenue between Ionia and Washtenaw Streets; on Michigan Avenue from Capitol Avenue to Grand Avenue, we recommend that this request be denied.

Paragraph 3, relative to parking on the south side of Saginaw Street between Logan and Verlinden Streets, we recommend "no parking" between Logan and the West City Limits.

Paragraph 4, relative to the Traffic Commission's recommendation that these streets be designated as "Stop Streets," Logan Street from Main to Saginaw; Pennsylvania Avenue, except that it be a stop street at the intersection of Grand River Avenue; Saginaw Street; Michigan Avenue; East Kalamazoo Street and Mount Hope Ave. We recommend that these requests be granted.

Paragraph regarding Kalamazoo Street we refer back to the Traffic Commission for further study for the following reason. At Pine and Kalamazoo Streets there are Grade and Junior High Schools and at Allen and East Kalamazoo Streets a similar condition exists. We do not feel that these should be "through Streets" at these two points.

Paragraph relative to Mount Hope Avenue, except that it be a "stop street" at the intersection of Logan Street, Washington Avenue and Cedar Street. We recommend that this request be granted.

Paragraph 5, relative to 'no parking" on Main Street on the north side from Pennsylvania Avenue east 70 feet. We recommend that Article "A," Section 27 of the Traffic Ordinance covering the above "no parking" area be repealed.

Paragraph 6, to eliminate traffic light at the corner of Pine and Saginaw Streets, we recommend this light be turned off for thirty days trial and the traffic light at the corner of Shiawassee and Larch Streets be turned off for 30 days trial; the traffic light at the corner of Holmes and Kalamazoo be turned off for thirty days trial and both Holmes and Kalamazoo Streets be made a "stop street."

Paragraph 7, relative to the traffic lights at Washington and Washtenaw, also Capitol and Ottawa we recommend no action on this pending decision of the three lights stated above being turned off for thirty days trial. If this proves that these three lights are not needed at these points they can then be transferred to these two corners mentioned in paragraph 7.

The section allowing right-hand turns at Washington and Michigan, we recommend the request be denied.

Sections 2 and 3 relative to parallel parking on Washington Avenue and Michigan Avenue and no left-hand turns at Washington and Ottawa, Washington and Michigan, Washington and Allegan and Washington and Washtenaw, we recommend that these be denied.

Signed:

MOTIONS, RESOLUTIONS AND NOTICES

By Ald. Rogers—

Whereas, by reason of unusual conditions of unemployment; of unusual business depression, there is an amount of poverty and distress in the city that is appalling; this is evidenced by the great numbers of folks who are applying for aid and assistance to the Welfare Department. The amounts of public moneys being expended by this department is large, with every prospect of its becoming larger, no one can foresee the end; and

Whereas, the necessary expenses of this department are likely to become a burden upon the taxpayer, for which reasons the operations of it is at present the most important activity of the city; and

Whereas, this department, under the supervision of the Welfare Committee, has been managed to the best of their ability; they have been as economical as possible commensurate with the needs of those who need our help; they have followed the plans of other cities where local conditions permitted, notwithstanding which the costs of maintaining this department and the unfortunates who need our aid, are rapidly mounting and unless relief is forthcoming, will become a question of ways and means for operating at all; and

Whereas, by reason of this increasing burden to the taxpayer, and the likelihood of its becoming greater, if the number of needy people increase, who are and will for some time, be demanding public relief, it will be necessary for this department to function for an indefinite time in the future; and

Whereas, many of the citizens of this city are not aware of the gigantic task of this department or the extent of its operation; nor the demands made upon it for relief; nor the constant drain it demands on the public funds, nor the attempts to keep the expenses thereof within due bounds; and

Whereas, we believe it to be proper and expedient for every taxpayer and citizen to have a complete understanding of the transactions of the Welfare Department; to have full information of the manner in which it functions; to have entire knowledge of the methods used in its management; to learn the extent of the demands made upon it; to know of the amounts expended and the accounting had therefor; to get detailed information of its operations in all the branches of its activities, which could be of interest to every citizen and taxpayer, to that end,

Therefore, be it resolved, that the entire and detailed operations of that department be referred to a committee, of not less than seven representative citizens of this city, appointed by the Mayor, to investigate and examine into the transactions of the Welfare Department with full power to examine the books and the character of the work done, to subpoena and examine witnesses under oath as to anything coming under their observation and to make a report of its findings to this Council as soon as such examination can be made.

Gentlemen:

March 1, 1932.

Gentlemen of the Council:

At the last meeting of this body on the 29th of February, there was passed a motion made by Ald. Templeton, and to which there was added by Ald. Kircher, matters which left the motion in its entirety, read as follows:

"That all contracts for purchase of wood and other supplies, for the Welfare Department, be brought before this Council for approval before being consummated."

After due consideration of the effect of this motion, upon the operations of this department, I deem it expedient to exercise my prerogative and enter my disapproval of the same for the following reasons:

First: If this motion is carried into effect, as it was passed by this Council, it would practically suspend the operations of the Welfare Department. Under the present system that has been adopted by this department for its usual operation, it is necessary to replenish much of the supplies used by it daily, and if all such purchases are to be brought before this body for approval before they can be made, those dependent upon this department for aid and assistance will be deprived of the ordinary necessities of life until this body either meets in special session for that purpose or until its next regular meeting.

Second: I believe it unwise and inexpedient for the Council, without more deliberation, to change the entire system of the Welfare Department and its operations; such a change at this time might have a most serious effect on those persons for whose benefit the department functions.

I am therefore vetoing the action in order to continue the department on its present basis, until the Council has an opportunity to give more consideration to the desirability of changing it. If the Council decides, after such due deliberation, that it desires to approve all purchases and contracts made for the benefit of this department, rather than leave the duty to the Welfare Committee, I would not oppose such action, but such a change should not be made effective until a new system is agreed upon which will not seriously interfere with the functioning of that department at the present time.

This department has for years operated under the supervision of the Welfare Committee. and there has never been any expressed desire by anybody to change the manner of its operation until this motion was made and carried. It has operated in that way for several years and apparently until now has operated successfully and satisfactory. For this reason I have determined to veto this motion.

Respectfully submitted,
PETER F. GRAY,
Mayor.

MOTIONS, RESOLUTIONS AND NOTICES

By Ald. Larabee—

Whereas, in the assessment of the real estate, taxes for the Durant Motor Car Company for 1930 there was an erroneous assessment made; and

Whereas, there was a penalty attached to the real estate taxes on said property, the total amount of which is $1,452.13; and

Whereas, said penalty was erroneously added to said taxes; and

Whereas, the said Durant Motor Car Company would be entitled to a reassessment thereon and the amount due for the taxes without the penalty would be the only amount the city teasurer could collect; and

Whereas, it is proper to make an adjustment of the same and permit said taxes to be paid without said penalty, and the City Treasurer is authorized to receive the same, and the City Clerk is hereby ordered to draw a warrant to the County of Ingham for said penalty in the amount of $1,452.13, which is issued to relieve the City Treasurer upon said assessment from collection thereof; and

Whereas, also for the year 1931, the real estate taxes for said Durant Motor Car Company was erroneously assessed and the penalty attached thereto of $1,270.75; and

Whereas, the Durant Motor Car Company is entitled to have said real estate reassessed and to pay the taxes thereon without the penalty attached thereto;

Therefore be it resolved, that the City Treasurer is hereby authorized to receive said taxes assessed without said penalty in the adjustment thereof, and in both years relieve the property of said penalty and without the inconvenience of said reassessment.

REPORTS OF CITY OFFICERS

March 28, 1932.

Gentlemen of the Council:

In the very near future it will be necessary to offer for sale the bonds of this city known as "Welfare Emergency Bonds" to take care of the outlay of that department for welfare aid. The amount of such bonds that can be issued at this time for that purpose is $102.000.

In my judgment serious consideration should be given to the matter of selling these bonds to the citizens of the City of Lansing, if possible, and arrangements should be made to follow that policy in disposing of this issue of bonds.

My reasons for advocating such a step at this time are

First. It will keep the money at home and the interest paid on such bonds will be paid to our own citizens instead of sending it out of the city from whence it never returns.

Second. In my opinion, these bonds could be sold at par to the citizens of Lansing, and that they should not draw more than four and one-half (4½) per cent interest, payable semi-annually. They could be issued in denominations of one hundred, five hundred and one thousand dollars, and be sold under such rules as this Council would adopt with reference to the amount to be sold weekly to each person, and the amounts to be limited to any one person from the total issue.

Third. It occurs to me that this policy properly and carefully followed out, would be the exercise of good business judgment on the part of this Council. It would furnish a safe and attractive investment for our own citizens. Instead of the interest payable on these bonds being sent away from the city every six months, that it would be paid to our own citizens, and kept circulating within the bounds of our own city. It would increase the stability of our credit both at home and abroad.

The foregoing is therefore most respectfully submitted for your earnest consideration.

PETER F. GRAY,
Mayor.

Referred to Committee on Ways and Means.

March 28, 1932.

Honorable Mayor and Council, Lansing, Mich.

Gentlemen:

I herewith submit to your honorable body the following special assessment roll for your consideration:

Actual Cost

Installing water services on N. Clemens Avenue, from Michigan Avenue to Saginaw Street

Total to be assessed.....$304.96

Respectfully submitted,
FRANK J. CHRISTOPHER,
Assessor.

Received and placed on file.

March 25, 1932.

Honorable Mayor and Members of the City Council, Lansing, Mich.

Gentlemen:

In the published account of your meeting of last Monday we have noted the action taken by you in regard to the stop and go lights which you authorized to be shut off for a 30 day trial.

We believe that the trial period should become effective 30 days after the resolution was passed, accordingly we requested the Electric Light and Water Board to turn off and cover these lights on March 15th for a 30 day period, except the light at Holmes and Kalamazoo should not be turned off until about April 6, when the amendment making Kalamazoo Street a stop street became effective, as we could not legally place stop signs on Holmes Street at this intersection before this date.

There seems to be some misunderstanding about the entire matter so we are sending this communication to show our position.

PINE AND SAGINAW—Stop signs were on Pine Street at this intersection. The light was ordered to be covered but was removed by the Electric

A collaborative digitization project of the City of Lansing and Forest Parke Library and Archives - Capital Area District Libraries

Light and Water Board, and we are informed that it was temporarily removed as it was easier and cheaper to remove the light than to turn it off and cover it.

SHIAWASSEE AND LARCH—Stop signs were placed upon Shiawassee Street at this intersection when the light was discontinued .

Stop signs could be placed at these intersections legally because the ordinance designates both Larch and Saginaw Streets as stop streets.

HOLMES AND KALAMAZOO—We asked that this light be not turned off until about April 6th when the ordinance designates Kalamazoo Street as a stop street and we could then place stop signs on Holmes Street at this intersection.

We regret that you have not seen fit to allow at least a 30 days trial as you originally intended as we believe you would have discovered that these lights are not essential in their present locations, at least there has been no difficulty so far during the trial period and these lights could be used to advantage in some other locations. The light at Baker and Cedar Streets is worn out and unreliable and should be replaced.

We believe that the white canes used by the blind people will be more effective and safer for them than the light at Pine and Saginaw Streets, as the autos turn both right and left at this intersection.

We are unable to carry out that portion of your resolution authorizing trial lights at Washington and Washtenaw and at Capitol and Ottawa as there are now no lights available.

We did not place stop signs on Larch Street at Shiawassee nor on Saginaw at Pine as the ordinance does not require such signs and they would not be effective without such ordinance.

Believing that these comments will clear our position, we remain,

Yours truly,
THE TRAFFIC COMMISSION,
JAS. S. BURNS,
CHAS. BARBER,
M. S. GRAHAM,
M. H. MILKS.
H. H. HARDY.

By Ald. Smith—

That the action of this Council taken on March 21, 1932, relative to traffic lights be rescinded and the Traffic Commission be given the required time to carry out 30 day trial relative to lights.

By Ald. Kircher—

That the resolution of Ald. Smith lie on the table.

Carried.

The communication of the Traffic Commission was placed on file.

By Ald. Templeton—

That whereas, there is an unusual condition of unemployment in the City of Lansing, and attendant therewith is a great amount of distress and want amongst the unemployed as a result of the prolonged period of business depression and such unemployment; and

Whereas, by reason of such conditions of unemployment and want, the City of Lansing, for humane reasons, has extended aid and relief to large numbers of such unemployed, and that such welfare aid, unemployment and distress and the amount thereof demanded from the city to the persons affected by such conditions was not anticipated and provided for, when the budget for the current year for welfare aid and relief was adopted; and

Whereas, the funds provided for such relief for such persons in distress has been exhausted and overdrawn, and this Council deems that the sum of $102,000 will be necessary for refunding the same and for the relief of the poor and distressed for the remainder of the fiscal year, and for anticipated relief for the indigent poor for the coming year; and

Resolved further, that said bonds shall be offered for sale to the citizens of the City of Lansing, upon such terms as are herein prescribed, and in such denominations and at such times as shall hereafter be provided by this Council.

Resolved further, that said bonds herein ordered to be sold shall be designated "City of Lansing Welfare Emergency Bonds," and be issued in the total sum of $102,000, in such denominations of such amounts and of such numbers as shall hereafter be designated by this Council.

Resolved further, that there shall be printed on the back of said bonds the following provisions for registration as to number and interest.

To the Mayor and City Council:

Your Committee on Ways and Means have carefully considered the budget requests of the various Departments. We have made many reductions with the result that the operating expenses have been reduced $297,461.83 below last year. It has been necessary to add $88,146.00 for bond service and $200,000.00 for Welfare more than last year or a total addition of $288,146.00.

The assessed valuation will be lower this year and the rate will be higher but the tax should not be higher on any given piece of property. We make the following recommendations:

1. That the Departments practice the strictest economy, and that they keep their expenses below the figures set in this budget if possible.

2. That no Department add any help, even though provided for in the budget (common labor excluded) or fill any vacancies without first getting the consent of the Council.

3. That the City Comptroller issue no check for any bill or salary which is not in conformity with the budget or lower.

4. We recommend that the budget for the year beginning May 1, 1932, and ending April 30. 1933. be fixed at $1,585,850.87. as detailed in the attached document.

MAX TEMPLETON,
F. H. THOMAN,
HAROLD H. CAMPBELL.
Committee on Ways and Means,

By Ald. Templeton—

That the Budget be printed and placed on file in the City Clerk's Office for one week.

Gentlemen of the Council:

It is my purpose to call your attention to the present status of the garbage department in order that the department may function properly and in accordance with the wishes of the City Council.

The charter of the city provides simply that the council shall have the right and power to acquire, construct, own, operate, repair and maintain a system of garbage collection and disposal.

Acting under the charter the council adopted ordinance No. 45, which is known as the garbage ordinance, and provides that the Superintendent of

A collaborative digitization project of the City of Lansing and Forest Parke Library and Archives - Capital Area District Libraries

Public Works shall act as superintendent of garbage.

For some reason, which is unfamiliar to me, the provisions of the ordinance were disregarded when the council in 1921 passed a resolution which divorced the garbage department from the department of public works and placed the control in the hands of a committee on garbage, with power to act subject to the approval of the council. For the past eleven years the department has operated as a separate department, under the council resolution, until the present date.

It would now seem that inasmuch as the whole being of the department was illegal and in violation of the council's own ordinance, that the terms of the ordinance be again made operative, or, if it is the pleasure of the council to revise or revamp the department, that such steps should be taken by properly amending the ordinance; in any event the situation should be clarified by an expression of the council.

The question of placing the department with the public works department would also call for some thought as to the handling of the present situation in the public works department. We have very encouraging reports from the present superintendent, and it is my hope that he will soon be with us again, but as there is some question as to the exact date of Mr. Klock's return, some action should be taken by the council for the handling of the office, which Scott Baker from the Engineering Department has handled temporarily at my request.

For reasons beyond the control of the council or myself, conditions have arisen which would call for a careful study of the present situation, and an expression from the aldermen and the council.

Respectfully submitted,
PETER F. GRAY,
Mayor.

By Ald. Harper—
That the communication be referred to the Committee on Ways and Means and Committee on Garbage.

To the City Council of the City of Lansing.

Gentlemen:

Nelson Rouse is the owner of lot No. 25, Block 1, Kempf's Addition to the City of Lansing. He sold this lot on a land contract to one Stark and wife who, in turn, assigned their interests in the land contract to Geo. W. Thomas and wife.

Geo. W. Thomas and wife went into possession of the property and afterward applied to the City of Lansing to pay the taxes which they did, taking a lien on his contract interests. Then Mr. Thomas and wife sold their interest in the contract to somebody else and did not reimburse the City of Lansing for the taxes on this property.

The lien filed by the City of Lansing constitutes a cloud on Mr. Rouse's title to this property. The city cannot enforce this lien as against Mr. Rouse, and in fairness to him, the lien should be released.

A resolution by this body, authorizing the mayor and city clerk to execute such a release, would be proper. There is attached to this communication, the proper release of such a lien.

Very respectfully,
RICHARD RAUDABAUGH,
City Attorney.

REPORTS OF COMMITTEES

May 23, 1932.

To the City Council of Lansing:
Gentlemen:

PREAMBLE

At a regular meeting of the City Council held on February 23, 1932, a resolution was introduced by Alderman Rogers which was unanimously passed by your body authorizing the Mayor to appoint a committee to carefully investigate the organization and working of the Welfare Department of the City of Lansing, since the number of dependents upon public relief was rapidly increasing and the finances of the municipality were being severely strained to meet the demand. Upon completion of its investigations this committee was to report its findings to your honorable body. The report of this committee, after nearly three months' of weekly official meetings coupled with considerable time and effort put in otherwise, both individually and collectively, is herewith respectfully submitted.

First, in accepting this appointment each member of the commission was assured by the Mayor that no strings political or otherwise were attached to the appointment, that no instructions beyond those given in the authorizing resolution would be formulated, that no interference with the investigations of the committee would appear on the part of any official, and that both the Council and the citizens of Lansing desired and would give serious consideration to the committee's report. The members of the committee, both individually and collectively, are happy to say that these assurances have been fulfilled. Our investigations have been received courteously and cooperatively by all.

Secondly, the wider a-field we have gone and the deeper we have looked the more complicated as well as the more serious have the problems appeared. At a time when in the normal run of events a decrease in the number of those aided should be registered, we have found a rather steady increase to have taken place. Within a comparatively few months the Welfare Department of our City has become a major expenditure. Its totals are now the totals of big business. There may be some decrease from the present figures during the coming summer, but unless business conditions take a decided upturn for the better it is extremely probable that next winter will witness a still further expansion of the number needing to be aided, with the consequent further strain upon municipal resources. The committee has to take this forward look into consideration.

Thirdly, in the eleven weekly official meetings of the committee averaging from three to four hours at a sitting, there have been interviewed representatives of the Welfare Department, other welfare agencies, women's clubs, taxpaying citizens, grocers, physicians, beneficiaries. Complaints have been investigated. The records of several other Michigan cities have been studied. Both individually and collectively the committee has personally contacted the Welfare Committee of the Council, the offices in the basement of City Hall, and the municipal store on E. Ottawa Street. Numerous leads have been followed and personal contacts made privately. However, in spite of these efforts the committee feels humble in making its report. There has been more than we can appreciate or of which we can see the end. We have no illusions as to our report constituting any final set up. We submit no illusions as to our serious and honest attempt to perform a labor which in the name of good citizenship we were asked to do.

We therefore present a detailed report under the following headings—
A—Beneficiaries.
B—Taxpayers.
C—Administration.
D—Recommendations.

A—BENEFICIARIES

During the month of January, 1931, there were 1,080 families cared for by the Welfare Department at a cost of $34,487.50. During January, 1932, the number had increased to 1,635 families and the cost was $37,385.86. The second week of May, 1931, the number of families served were 980, while during the corresponding week in May, 1932, the department served 1917 families thus showing the increase over last year to be about 100%.

The first families to apply for aid were those who had no savings in reserve, and the next those who had been able to accumulate a little for an emergency, but now it has reached those who have formerly been independent; many buying homes, had held good positions and made good wages, now their savings having been exhausted, they have had to borrow to pay their taxes and meet other obligations. It is estimated that about 85% of those on the City Welfare lists are normally thrifty and self-sustaining, the other 15% being those who are asking and expecting assistance most of the time.

Some of the beneficiaries have complained in the sameness of the diet which the City offers to them, asking for more of a variety from which to choose claiming it would cost no more than the present method. There have also been many requests for a greater allowance of soaps, especially laundry soap, scouring powders, and some kind of water softeners owing to the hardness of the city water.

A few complaints were made as to the quality of the bread flour and the baking powder furnished by the Department but this committee has tested both of these articles and finds there was no reason for such complaints.

It has been suggested by some of the beneficiaries that the Welfare Department have the Rules of the Department printed and placed in a conspicuous place, possibly at the foot of the stairs, so that the new applicants will not make the mistake of getting into the fuel line when they want groceries, and after having spent some time in the fuel line be informed that they will have to return to the rear of the grocery line making their way up to the office a second time.

Some complaints have come to the committee concerning the lack of courtesy on the part of certain Welfare employes also that favoritism has been shown. They feel there should be impartial treatment for all. Women applicants think there should be a trained woman Welfare worker in the Department as they often need someone to whom they can go for advice as well as for material relief.

The majority of the applicants have registered no complaints and we believe that many of the people who have been receiving help from the City will try to make restitution when they find work again and have become once more self sustaining.

B—TAXPAYERS

From the taxpayers' standpoint the City Welfare Department is today one of the major activities of the City. This Department expended $371,272.40 in 1931 and has disbursed $168,667.37 during the first four months of 1932, or a total of $539,939.77, in the past sixteen months, an average of $33,749.62 per month. The expenditures are now running about Ten Thousand Dollars per week and at this rate will require a half million dollars for 1932, or one-third of the total budget set up by the City Council for all city activities for 1932.

The actual expense of operating the Department in salaries from January, 1931, through March, 1932, was $26,-763.93 while the store rent and expense for the same period was $2,680.69. This amount seems very reasonable and the management of the Department and the Council Welfare Committee should be commended for its efforts in keeping the operating expenses to this amount.

Many taxpayers appeared before this Committee and we found a uniform desire to see that no citizen of Lansing suffered for the necessaries of life. The question of paying rent has been a major problem to satisfy but the Department has had to conserve its funds for food, clothing, and fuel, and has paid rent only where necessary to provide shelter for the family and then only in nominal amounts. The total rent paid in the past sixteen months has been $42,082.98, while the expenditure for groceries alone has been $206,-236.11. This rent disbursement must be kept to a minimum as well as all other expenses, and the present program of the Department in allowing a credit on the taxes of the property owner for the use and rent of his property by indigents seems fair and equitable.

We believe that where labor from the City Welfare Department is or can be used by the various Departments of the City, i.e., the engineering, parks, water and light, etc., that it should be used and that the Welfare Fund should be reimbursed for this labor in such an amount as the work or labor is reasonably and fairly worth to the Department using such labor.

C—ADMINISTRATION

Welfare Department

As soon as your Committee of Ten Citizens had together accepted appointment, and had organized itself by selecting A. B. C. Hardy, chairman, and Mrs. Grace Leadly, secretary, it gave immediate attention to the Welfare Department, with its staff in the City Hall basement, its accounting clerks in the Comptroller's office, its store at the southwest corner of East Ottawa Street and Grand Avenue, and its wood storage in the City yards on North Grand Avenue. The Welfare store has been rented by the City since January 15th, 1931, from Charles Kontas, proprietor of the Hotel Detroit.

A collaborative digitization project of the City of Lansing and Forest Parke Library and Archives - Capital Area District Libraries

As you know, the quarters in the basement of City Hall are badly located, poorly lighted, terribly crowded, illy ventilated. Our first interest was in the personnel and its operation.

For convenience and record, we list below each paid employee, with brief mention of work or duties, and salary or wages, at the time of making this report. We found only two regular annual salaries, those of Mr. Riordan, Director, and of Mrs. Waltz, chief clerk; all others being paid on the basis of weekly wage rates.

1. Mr. D. J. Riordan, Welfare Director, responsible for personnel, and for entire operation of Department; handles personally all purchasing, and controls quality and costs of goods; salary per year $2,590., average per week, $49.67.

2. Mrs. Lena Waltz, chief clerk, long with the Department, makes up pay rolls, handles all fuel orders etc, salary, year $1,200., average per week, $23.01.

3. Homer J. Fowler, Assistant Director, interviews all new applicants; makes office investigation and prepares original record of each case; in urgent cases can authorize temporary relief; checks up all Welfare cases in hospitals, contacts City Physician in cases of need for special foods for sick dependents and other general work, per week $28.50

Note—Two young women, whose families receive Welfare aid, work on the order desk, to help pay for families' supplies; each is allowed for noon day lunch money, per week $2.00—$4.00

In Comptroller's Office

20. A. Vogler, on Welfare ledger cards and records; per week $24.37

21. Edward Courtney, on Welfare ledger cards and records; per week $24.37

22. Eva Mutz, works on Welfare records and reports; per week $19.23

In Store

23. William Hollis, store foreman, in general charge; per week $20.00

24. Ellis Penoyer, handles all oil; receives some aid, and per week .. $6.00

25. Mrs. Florence Freed, has charge of new and used clothing, mends, and delivers clothing on orders; per week 8.00

Outside

26. C. W. Sparling, wood cutting foreman, began about April 15th; per week $24.37

27. Fred Parshall, has charge of Welfare gardens, from May 1st, per week $24.37

Total Weekly Pay Roll of Department, listed above per week $607.58

During the entire time of our investigation we have found these paid employees of the department very busy, handicapped by limited equipment and crowded conditions, and we believe the Department can not be operated with less help, but may have to have more if applicants increase.

The Store

The Welfare Store, at East Ottawa and Grand Avenue, is centrally located, has plenty of space, light and ventilation, and is well suited for the work. From January 15th, 1931, to September 30th, 1931, the Department paid $75 per month for such part of the building as was then used; from October 1st, 1931, to March 1st, 1932 the Department paid $150 per month when it took over the large basement for vegetable storage, and a large part of the second floor. From March 1st, 1932, the Department has paid and is now paying $100 per month, but still retains the enlarged space. Investigation at the City Treasurer's office shows that the property was assessed at $35,000, and the 1931 taxes paid by the owner were $939.75, in addition to his insurance, some upkeep, and interest on his contract. Therefore it behooves the city to be on the lookout for some permanent quarters for the Welfare store.

A collaborative digitization project of the City of Lansing and Forest Parke Library and Archives - Capital Area District Libraries

The Food

The groceries, vegetables, meats and other supplies, have been sampled and tested repeatedly and are of good quality. Investigation shows that the Welfare Director has made good use of the valuable help of the Michigan State College Domestic Science Department in rounding out the bill of fare to furnish a proper and balanced ration. The chairman of your committee has personally gone over the complete list of foods carried with the chief Dietitian at the College and has been assured that the list, properly distributed over a period of weeks, will furnish a balanced and good diet. The dietitian stressed the necessity of having beneficiaries use sufficient canned tomatoes and such vegetables as possible during cold months, like carrots, turnips, parsnips, and especially cabbage. She also stressed the necessity of having beneficiaries produce and utilize a liberal supply of greens and greens producing vegetables from the garden lots now under way as soon as same can be grown. She also stated that where there are young children who are not vigorous, their parents should be furnished a reasonable weekly supply of cod liver oil in some form, and strongly induced to administer it, to build safe health. The nurses have stressed the necessity of furnishing to expectant mothers and to young and delicate children plenty of milk and some fresh fruits, especially during cooler months.

Clothing

Though the Department has not in the past distributed any very large amount of either new or used clothing, the clothing department, now located on the second floor of the store building, must of necessity be expanded. The Welfare Department should therefore immediately set up a correct inventory of both new and used clothing on hand, by units, should determine upon what it should carry as a reasonable line of new clothing; but most of all it should promptly arrange space for handling, cleaning and repairing, and should then quickly put out a general call over the City for good used clothing, for the City Welfare Department must certainly have the first call upon all good citizens.

The call should also be made for good worth-repair shoes in the same way. For right now is the time to call for winter and heavy clothing, while it is available. Then the groups of club and church women, who have proffered help, should be enlisted to take over the reconditioning of such clothing, to have it ready for distribution next fall and winter. Jacob Bos, of your Committee, says from long experience, "you must gather winter clothing in the spring and summer clothing in the fall, while it is available, and when there is time to put it into condition ahead of dire need." Much future expenditure can be saved by the city by immediate action on this plan, and must be kept in action twelve months per year in the future.

Shoes

All shoes are carried in a large room adjoining the Department offices in City Hall basement, and the shoe-repair work is located in the same place, which makes for economy. Every adult and every child who applies for shoes must come to the Department wearing the old shoes, so that careful inspection may be made to see if old shoes are worth repairing; if so, they are then repaired quickly. If new ones are indicated, the old ones must be left in exchange to prevent duplicating. This practice is sound and should be strictly maintained. The shoe-repair work will undoubtedly have to be increased to save money for the City.

Food Costs

After careful investigation with wholesale dealers and in other large cities, and considering the sound quality of all foods now furnished, your committee is convinced that the Welfare Director is buying at bottom prices. We find a few mistakes have been made in the past in both sources and quality, but the Department is today well set. The same applies to such meats the Department can handle without large and expensive refrigerating equipment, which is out of the question at this time.

Oil for Cooking

As the Department does not pay gas-fuel bills, except in a few very special cases, and rightly so, the amount of oil used is steadily increasing. It is carried at the rear of the store building, and handled separately to prevent spoiling foods. We find it is bought at low prices.

Inventory

As you know the Welfare store handles more food supplies than any except the largest in Lansing. Both its receiving and distribution are being handled by one paid foreman and an average of ten Welfare beneficiaries in order to save expense; also one or two of the Department staff have to be authorized to withdraw small amounts of food for emergency relief after the store is closed. But there is no perpetual inventory. Such inventory does not need to be carried out into money figures, but can be carried by units in which the goods are handled. In spite of the fact that it will add a little to the cost of operation, we are convinced that an exact inventory should be established at early date, and that it should be maintained accurately as perpetual inventory, under direction of the Comptroller, balanced each week and each month to show up shortages promptly as to units and quantities of food supplies, so the Department can take prompt action to head off losses. Our belief is that such a perpetual inventory will pay for itself and will lessen temptation. This same inventory procedure as to units should be at the same time applied to oil, clothing and shoes.

Welfare Store Will Be Permanent

After hearing representatives of the food dealers organization, we are of the opinion that the Welfare Department is now committed to its own store, and that the City could not afford to go back to the old system of issuing food purchase orders to local stores in the old way, as that would considerably increase costs to the City and would lead to many perplexities.

Fuel for Heating

The beneficiaries have to burn coal in whatever kind and age of stoves they may have, so it must be clean, free burning and free of stone and clinker. The director therefore wisely utilized the engineering experience of the other City Commissions which were equipped, and had set up for the Department in 1931 a standard specification for coal, and furnished this specification to fuel dealers throughout the City upon request. The price on this standard coal has been per ton $5.55, and per half ton $2.90 delivered to homes. If a dealer delivers coal below specification, he has hard work to collect pay for that order and automatically receives no more orders, a just and sure cure.

One service agency called the Committee's attention to the coal it was buying for quite a little less money, but investigation of this coal by the chairman, convinced him that in any fair comparison the Department coal could easily prove its economy.

Wood

Your Committee understands that the Welfare Committee of the City Council sponsored and went into the buying and cutting of standing timber on the basis of its cordage, in order to make economies as well as to provide labor for idle beneficiaries. We of course know that wood is more satisfactory and economical than coal for heating during warmer months when heat is only needed during cold mornings.

Our investigation of the records in the Comptroller's office shows that for the period January to August 31, 1931, the cost including only cash for timber and compensation per cord was $3.42, delivered at the City yards, without allowing anything for the welfare labor of felling timber and cutting up the wood. Adding the estimated thirty-five cents per cord to cover delivery from city yards to homes, this wood was far above the cost of good body wood delivered at homes by local fuel dealers We know that the first work was more or less experimental, and the early hauling from farms to city yards was by large Public Works Department trucks which ran up the expense.

In the period from September 1st, 1931, to March 31, 1932, the Comptroller's records show that the cash outlay including compensation insurance was per cord delivered at City yards, $2.47. During this later period the hauling was lowered some by contract trucks, but this wood which we have inspected in the city yards carries a considerable percentage of small limb wood, so adding again the estimated thirty-five cents per cord for delivery from city yards to homes, and again allowing nothing for all Welfare labor of getting it out, this wood has cost above the standard price for sound body wood delivered from local dealers to homes.

The Committee hopes that the recent purchase of a body of standing timber by the Welfare Committee of the Council for a lump sum, estimated only on its minimum production of sound body wood, and that at a favorable price, and this time allowing nothing for the small limb wood, which will therefore cost only the cutting and hauling, the Department may have a chance to furnish considerable work, and may at the same time come through with a reasonable cost for the wood, provided it is left entirely free to arrange for and control its own hauling, by use of trucks owned by Welfare beneficiaries, where the main cost can be held down to upkeep, gasoline, and oil, as the beneficiaries will be glad to work for the Department, just as the woodcutters do.

Regardless of the high cost of the wood now on hand, the Department is compelled to deliver it to homes and to bill it to beneficiaries at per cord for sound body wood $2.50 and for small limb wood $1.50, to make it compare at all favorably with local retail prices. The citizens who have shown much interest in this wood question will watch closely the outcome and costs of wood to the city on the new stumpage purchases.

System of Investigation

Each family head seeking aid must first be interviewed by Mr. Fowler, Assistant Director, who records on a permanent record card the answers given to the office investigation questions printed on the card, then has the applicant read it over carefully, certify, and sign it. Applicant is then told when to return, and the name and address are passed to the chief investigator, who in turn assigns the case to the outside investigator, in whose district the home is located, for independent investigation at the home and in its neighborhood.

The entire investigation does not require over twenty-four hours in a worthy case. When applicant returns, provided the two investigations check properly, he is given a numbered identification card bearing his name and address, number of adults and number of children in his family, and in large type the day of the week on which he must always come for his weekly order, as his card will not be honored on any other day, this being the only way the Department can handle its enormous work.

He is next instructed to go to the City Physician's office for physical examination, within the week, so that his health and condition card, which returns to the Department, will show what amount and kind of work he can stand when city work is available. At present six investigators are listed, but as one of them seems to put in most of his time on office work, three cover the south part of the city and two the north part, Michigan Avenue being the dividing line and this arrangement is the only districting of the City at this time.

Outside investigators are allowed gasoline and oil for their cars, but none should be allowed any other employee, except the one who has charge of investigating and handling house rentals for the Department. Each investigator receives his assignments of new cases in his general district twice each day, and he is expected to keep up the reinvestigations in the same neighborhoods at the same time. It was reported to your Committee that an investigator could make an average of ten investigations per day, allowing more time for new cases, and less for reinvestigations. Information from many sources filters into the Department or is given to investigators on their districts, and this information is reported and followed up. If cases are found to be unfair and not worthy, the identification card of such case is taken up and he must reassure the Department before he can be reinstated and again draw supplies. A few of the investigators are equipped as deputy policemen in order to be able to make home investigations of hoarding food or of other special matters.

Administering Relief

Of necessity, first come first served must be the rule, so long lines form in the hallways leading to the Department. For convenience and to save time and mistakes, each applicant is furnished a printed list of all items in the store, and checks with pencil each item wanted for that week's order. At the first vacant order window he hands in this marked slip with his identification card, and the clerk who is to write up his order has at hand his last week's order for comparison, in order to change diet from week to week, so far as possible, within the list carried by the Department. The order upon the Welfare store is made up in duplicate, one copy for the store and the other for the accounting Department. The copy for the store shows only the total charge for the whole order, but the beneficiary or any citizen can go to the Comptroller's office at any time and see the itemized charge copy. Suppliers prefer that the itemized prices be not distributed generally, as that would only disturb their regular trade relations, and this seems to be a sound argument.

Behind the order desk as the order progresses, it is checked with the ledger card, which also shows all credits for city work, and total items and amounts on the order are checked up against the standard amounts allowed to a family of that size, in order to prevent hoarding. If the final checker at end of order desk is not satisfied as to amount of work done, when city work has been available, he passes the papers to the chief investigator, who settles the matter with the beneficiary, and who can lift the card and refuse further aid till the matter is cleared up. If the order is fair, the final checker passes it, attaches the week's supply of milk tickets which are controlled at his desk in order to prevent losses. The beneficiary then goes to the store and exchanges his order copy for goods.

Relation to Health Department

The daily relations of the Department with the Clinic and City physician's office are intricate and not clearly defined. Upon authorization of the City Physician, who becomes automatically the physician for the more than 1,800 families now on the Welfare list, the Department will furnish special foods for sick indigents or for under nourished children, also medicines, through issuing orders on local stores. Upon order from City Physician, the Department furnishes ambulance service and places indigents in hospitals, the decision as to which hospital seeming to rest with the Department, but apparently much influenced by members of the Council Welfare Committee. For 1931 the Comptroller's records show City payments to Sparrow Hospital, $8,529.25, to St. Lawrence Hospital $9,366.25, and to Neller Hospital $6,646.25. As the Department has to pay for all authorized City indigent cases, which it places in the hospitals, an executive of the Department checks up the hospitals on City cases, to see how many of its cases are there, and whether they are being discharged as promptly as is safe, in order to save money for the City. But neither the Department nor the City Physician apparently has any authority once a patient has been entered in any hospital. The City Physician has many applications for free treatment from people who are not at the time on the Welfare lists, so needs and asks for investigation by the Welfare Department, and his Department has neither investigators nor budget allowance for the purpose. The Welfare Department has to refuse this further burden in order to hold down its own expenses. The City Physician does not recommend the private hospital to the Department. You can see from the above information the need of clarifying the relationship between these two departments, whose work touches in so large a proportion the health and welfare of the same families.

As the Department has to care for all funerals for indigents, it has the control of placing the business with undertakers, and in order to obtain as low costs as possible, it also places the ambulance work needed with the same firm. We understand that the present arrangement for both ambulance and undertaking service is being placed in accordance with action taken by City Council Welfare Committee, and we find the costs are reasonable.

D—RECOMMENDATIONS

In the preceding sections of your committee's report we have given a condensed survey of factual findings. Guided by these findings we now present for your consideration a few recommendations in addition to those already incorporated in other sections of this report. We cannot always go into minute detail but look rather at things in the large, since no one of us now living has ever before encountered so tangled an array of economic problems as are today knocking at the doors of the body politic for solution.

Centralization

If the Welfare Department of the city in the near future were likely to diminish to the comparative unimportance of former days, the present crowded and unhygienic registration and interviewing quarters in the basement of the City Hall could be faced with Spartan fortitude. But if the Welfare Department is to continue over a fairly long period as a major municipal department then efficiency, health and in the end economy, would probably be subserved by a localized centralization of effort. In other words, an ideal to work toward would be the gathering of all city welfare operations (save the comptroller's office) into one location. Registration, interviewing, the municipal store, shoe repairing, storage of supplies, gathering of clothing, distribution, and checking up could be more effectively handled from one center, to say nothing of improved hygienic conditions. With more room the lines could be organized into quicker movement with a consequent saving of time and weariness. Better coordination between the application for and the receiving of relief would be obtained. Closer check-ups would naturally follow. Under these expanded conditions more volunteer help could be utilized. There are possibilities along this line in the building already used for the present store. Other locations might be suggested. It would of course necessitate some initial expense and a probable increase in rental, but it efficiency is increased and public hygiene bettered, the suggestion is thought to be worthy of consideration.

Administration

First, method of registration. Though much has been accomplished as to records within a single busy year, office investigation of any case proves that present record forms do not provide sufficient real information on which to base the decisions and work of the Department.

The initial record is of major importance, for on its face it is practically the sworn statement of the applicant, and must bear his signature, and when properly cleared with the Central Exchange, it becomes the basis of that family's relations with City Welfare Department, City Physician, and all social service agencies in the community.

Therefore durable and complete, but not elaborate, record forms should be prepared and put into early use with all old records being transferred to same within reasonable time.

On its face, this new record form should show original date of application, and name of executive who interviewed him. It should also show the following:

Applicant's name, age, address, ward, citizenship, color, regular trade or occupation, where last worked, how long idle and why?

Wife's name and age, and earlier occupation if any?

Name and age of each adult at home, occupation, working, or idle and why?

Name and age and sex of each child, and how occupied.

Names, and relationship of near relatives, with addresses? Have such been asked to aid?

Has applicant any bank or savings account, and what bank has he done business with in the past?

A collaborative digitization project of the City of Lansing and Forest Parke Library and Archives - Capital Area District Libraries

Has applicant any life insurance, date of same, loan or surrender value?

Does he own home? Is it mortgaged, to whom, and paid up to what date?

If home bought on contract, from whom? And paid up to when? Also balance due?

If rented, from whom? Monthly rate and paid to what date?

Is house heated by stove? or furnace?

Is water, gas, or electric light in house; which used? Paid up to what dates?

Is cooking done by gas? or by oil stove? If by gas, how paid and to when?

Is any of furniture on contract? How much still owed?

Is radio used? Is it on time payments? How much due? To whom?

Has applicant a motor car? Make? How old? Has he new license? By whom paid? What is car used for?

In addition, any special information given by family head should also be on face of form and above his certification statement and signature. Also information as to how long and when he has been aided earlier and by city or other agencies.

Back of card should show at the top the date and record of City Physician's report on applicant's health, and health conditions in his family.

Also on back of card should be record of outside investigator's report with date and signed by the investigator. Attached to this original form should be every reinvestigation record with date and name of investigator so that the file on any family or case shall be up to the minute at all times.

Secondly, the personnel. Ostensibly, the personnel of this department is under the supervision of a Welfare Committee of the City Council which meets once a week at luncheon to keep in touch with welfare progress. Practically, the appointment of the head of the department is made by the Mayor and is apparently responsible to him. The head of the department in turn appoints his assistants who are apparently responsible to him. There is just a suggestion of a borderland of authority in these arrangements which could be cleared up under another system and which the committee will present later under another heading.

The committee found a Welfare Department which replacing an old regime something over twelve months ago had to reorganize itself to meet the impact of rapidly worsening conditions. On the whole it has done well and made substantial progress. The beginning of a technique and an efficient force are in evidence. Reports from various sources indicate that there is a better grasp of the necessity for more cooperation with extra-municipal social agencies. This is as it should be. There is probably no single position in municipal management at the present time open to more comment from all sides than the leadership of the Welfare Department. In many ways it is a completely thankless task and few there be who would with equanimity stand the daily gaff, but from the inner sense of personal integrity there can be no satisfactions. Thus with all employes in the department.

Strict honesty, impartiality, and the social instinct should always be insisted upon. Courtesy should always be shown applicants for relief. They are human beings and not robots. We have found much of the criticism of the Department to center around this lapse. The personnel of the Department could in places be much improved. It would be well if more socially trained investigators could be employed, or as an alternative to this, that those now employed should be given short courses by trained experts in their particular fields. We will admit that in the present stress relief is the prime function of the Welfare Department of the city, but a close second is intelligent and sympathetic administration. This too has its values. And lest an unwarranted inference of undue failure for the majority of the Department be drawn from the above words, let us add that along with criticisms have come almost, if not quite, as many commendations and appreciations. And finally, we pass on this suggestion—that somewhere in the administrative force a place be found for a trained woman whose chief function shall be to contact first hand all the women applicants for relief. Not a few socially minded citizens would also welcome some trained women investigators.

Thirdly, we strongly recommend the assignment of district geographical areas to individual investigators. These local assignments should last long enough, at least from four to six months, to allow for complete personal contacts and knowledge. Such continuity would go far towards establishing confidence between the aider and the aided where confidence has worthy foundations, and where not, it would bring such deficiency more quickly to book to the advantage of all concerned. Under this layout one of the chief concerns of the chief investigators would be to institute unheralded check-ups, just as a bank examiner holds periodical check-ups in the banks within his area.

Coordination and Cooperation

While times were good and Lansing was prosperous our community welfare work was met fairly adequately by generous private and corporate subscriptions to the Community Welfare Fund. The picture has radically changed within a year. The Community

A collaborative digitization project of the City of Lansing and Forest Parke Library and Archives - Capital Area District Libraries

Welfare Fund came short of its goal last fall, with further reductions in income as the months have passed, while the advance of the city welfare Relief has been extraordinary. Your committee does not wish to seem pessimistic nor to assume the role of prophecy, for it is well known that prophets are without honor in their own community, but it is sheer folly not to face facts as they are, and there is every indication at the present writing that unless a pronounced business upturn occurs soon the Community Welfare Fund will face further dimunition next winter, with a still larger demand being made for city relief. Such being the case, coordination and cooperation of all relief and welfare agencies will be necessitated in meeting what after all is one common problem, namely, relief to indigents and social service to the distressed. While not losing their separate identities the City Welfare Department, all Community Fund Agencies, the Veterans Relief,, the various church agencies already existing in the Roman Catholic, Protestant, and Jewish Communions, the Welfare Department of our factories, the benevolent efforts of womens' clubs, and all other relief agencies of whatever background should seek closer cooperation in order that duplication of effort and overlapping in area be avoided on the one hand, while on the other hand freedom for specialized effort according to the distinctive genius of each group be maintained. In modern warfare it is necessary for all the regiments to be brigaded into an army. The war days of 1914-18 are again upon us, only it is an internal war against poverty, unemployment, loss of morale and hope.

Right in this connection be it said further that the committee has had evidence of the possibility of mobilizing an unknown amount of voluntary woman service, if a constructive and reasonable approach is made along this line. The potential value of this is incalculable. A reservoir of energy is waiting to be tapped. But the energy to be released must have worthwhile channels for its flow. It will be challenged only by real service. To march up hill like the fabled king of France, and then down again, will create no enthusiasm. During the stern rigors of next winter it is believed many a woman will be found ready to lessen her conventional social engagements in order to greaten her social service possibilities.

Two Axioms of Relief

It would seem that two axioms of relief should be generally accepted by all. The first is that before any citizen should apply for relief from the city, or should be granted such relief, he or she should canvass every possibility of receiving such help from kin. A state law demands this be done in case of parent and child or child and parent, likewise grandparents and grandchildren. (See Section 8209 of Compiled Laws of 1929). It would also seem that the moral and social law that blood is thicker than water should be invoked wherever circumstances make it possible. Good citizenship demands that one should care for and be cared for by his own before public relief is granted.

Another axiom is that a quid pro quo should be firmly demanded by the donor and be cheerfully given by the recipient to the extent of ability. The social sense of our age should not and does not permit government to refuse to give necessary aid to those suffering for the necessities of life. On the other hand, the highest social and civic welfare is not promoted by the indifference or unwillingness of those aided to cooperate in return by rendering back such service as lies in their power. The world owes no man a living anymore than the man owes the world a living. Inter-dependence and cooperation are necessary all along the line. It has been estimated that fraudulent cases, hoarding cases, work-evasive cases constitute about 15% at the present time. It will be to the advantage of both the taxpayers and the worthy recipients of relief to have this percentage reduced to a still smaller minimum.

Welfare Labor

It is also axiomatic that beneficiaries of the Welfare Department should be employed wherever possible in distinctively city work receiving credit therefor as an offset to their indebtedness. In a measure this has been and is being done. One of the difficulties attending such labor is that it is not always skilled for the specific work to which it is assigned, and that from the very nature of the case it is apt to be low in efficiency. Another difficulty has in actual experience been found to reside in laxness of strictly observing the daily hours of work through failure in providing a Welfare Department time-keeper whose business it would be to check up and report back at once to the Welfare Department officials all such delinquencies. This laxness causes loss to the city and helps destroy the morale of the regularly employed city employees. No aspersion is herewith cast upon any of those assigned to work by the Welfare Department beyond that of humanity's natural tendency to be lax and inefficient in required work when not confronted with systematic check ups. If time-keepers of some kind have been found necessary in practically all business, it goes without saying that Welfare labor should be placed under the same rule.

Rents

The problem of payments for rent is a serious and perplexing one. Municipalities differ in their procedure. Lansing is more generous than some municipalities. The committee believes that this department is being particularly well managed at the present time.

Distribution of Food

The municipal store amply justifies itself. Few complaints have been received by the committee as to quantity or quality of food relief. The head of the Welfare Department has demonstrated his ability to purchase supplies at bottom prices. With very few exceptions the quality has been above reproach. Tests made at random by the committee have demonstrated this. Dietitians at Michigan State college have been consulted as to a balanced ration. Some volunteer help is employed in distribution. The cost of groceries and milk averages around 75 cents per week per person. This is hewing close to the line. If, however, the tax burden continues to accelerate, the alternative will probably have to be the installation of a few community kitchens where the economic advantages of wholesale cookery and close supervision may be secured. Experiments with community meals monotonous but nutritious, are being made throughout the country. We do not urge any immediate establishment of community kitchens, for such are not favorable to the continuation of family life, but we envisage it as an approaching possibility.

Board of Health and Welfare

Much attention should be given to the inter-relation between the Health and Welfare Departments, their areas overlap in many directions, they should be more closely merged. They present different aspects of the same problem. A better coordination of supervision of hospitalized patients is in order, that city patients should be sent to the two standardized hospitals already partially supported by welfare funds would seem to be the only reasonable procedure.

We look over our municipal housekeeping and we find that the major economic and business enterprises of our city are managed by boards appointed by the Mayor which after appointment have an independent existence and are thus largely freed from political perplexities. The Board members unhampered by petty political logrolling can give their time and energy to the city's business. How favorable such a set-up can be is evidenced by the pronounced success of the Board of Water and Electric Light Commissioners.

While the Welfare Department of the city was of minor economic importance such a set-up was perhaps not indicated, but with welfare relief jumping into yearly expenditures approaching a half million dollars a new procedure is clearly indicated. Your committee therefore strongly recommends that the city charter be so amended that the appointment of a Board of Health and Welfare by the Mayor be made, such board to be non-partisan, non-political, and to have the same freedom of action which the Board of Water and Electric Light Commissioners now have, such Board to consist of eight members to serve for four years each, with two automatically retiring and two being appointed annually. This proposal naturally means the merging of the present Health Board with the more expanded one.

Finally

It is with no little gratification that as citizens of Lansing we are able to say that thus far our municipality has met the impact of present distressing conditions with courage and generosity. We are probably more favorably situated than most of the cities of Michigan in our class. We are, however, placed in what is perhaps the most depressed industrial area in the entire United States, the automotive area. Local banking conditions have further weighed us down. Our burdens have been steadily accumulating for over two years and we do not know when the tide will turn. Meanwhile the municipality has been carrying on without anyone as yet freezing or starving because of lack of assistance. Undoubtedly some mistakes and errors of administration of relief funds have been made, for the factor of human error and misunderstanding is always and everywhere present, yet in the sudden onset of an expenditure of welfare relief mounting from $4,760.00 in April, 1930, to $31,051.00 in April, 1931, to $43,228.00 in April, 1932, the job has not been foozled. Nor does Lansing compare unfavorably with other Michigan cities in the quantity and quality of relief given.

We believe certain changes in the technique of administration can well be made, some economies installed, a better coordination and cooperation of all social and welfare relief brought to pass, and a basic change be instituted in authority. We believe on the one hand that anything approaching the fixed dole should be avoided, if possible, and that on the other hand we should take reasonable care of the worthy unfortunate as long as our common resources last. There is an immense need for immediate intelligent planning lest the possible stern rigor of a coming winter find us unprepared.

Interest to be collected on the connection in use after June 30th, 1932, as provided in said assessment roll.

REPORTS OF CITY OFFICERS

May 31, 1932.
Gentlemen of the City Council:
By virtue of the provisions of our city charter, the mayor is authorized to appoint annually members of the respective boards or commissions created by the charter, which appointments must be confirmed by your body before they become effective.
As I understand these provisions, I feel that this power was not given for any idle purpose, or that appointments should be held up by mere inaction on the part of this council, but that when appointments are made that it is the plain duty of the council to either confirm or reject them. In my opinion any other policy would be contrary to the intent of the charter.
At our meeting on the first Monday in May, I submitted two names for your consideration as members of the Police and Fire Commission. These appointments were not acted upon at that time, except that a motion to lay upon the table was made and carried, and no further disposition has been made of the matter up to the present. I believe sufficient time has elapsed for this council to make up their minds as to the advisibility of taking some definite action. To continue this policy of inaction on the part of the council, is to my mind, an evasion of the very evident intent of the charter.
I fully recognize the right of this council to either confirm or reject appointments, but I do question your right to do neither.
In view of the foregoing, I therefore request that you take these appointments from the table and take definite action thereon.
Very sincerely,
PETER F. GRAY,
Mayor.

June 6, 1932.

Gentlemen of the City Council:

On Tuesday evening, May 31st, at our last regular session, an unfortunate incident occurred for which I desire at this time to offer my apologies, not only to this body, but to the citizens of Lansing.

I fully realize that my action was not wholly in keeping with the dignity of the office of the Chief Executive of this city, but maintain that the circumstances leading to it were certainly of a very aggravated nature. The only excuse, therefore, which I can have to offer is the difficulty of human frailty to withstand the tirades of personal abuse which have been directed towards me without cause on this and other occasions during my term as mayor.

I would suggest also, that in the future, this council give some attention to protecting its own dignity, as well as that of its presiding officer. I am sure this will result in material benefit to all of us, and to the city. It will greatly increase the respect of all well meaning citizens for our city government.

Respectfully submitted,
PETER F. GRAY,
Mayor.

Very truly yours,

Health Director.
WM. E. NOYES,
Sanitary Inspector.
Referred to Committee on Streets.

To the Honorable Mayor and City Council,
Gentlemen:

To the Honorable City Council,
Lansing, Michigan.

Gentlemen:

Realizing the many perplexing problems confronting the welfare department of our city government, and its relationship to taxation, a group of Lansing citizens recently met to study the situation.

This meeting represented various agencies at present directly and indirectly engaged in community welfare work. It was the unanimous opinion of those present that possibly some assistance might be given the city government in an advisory capacity in helping to handle the many problems with which we are now confronted.

The matter of finances, rent, hospitalization, collection of clothing for the coming winter, and the question of co-ordinating the agencies so deeply interested in everything pertaining to the future of our city, were thoroughly discussed.

It was the concensus of opinion of those present that in order to bring more forcibly to the attention of our citizens the necessity for prompt and unified action, a permanent committee of citizens might be of considerable assistance to this body in helping to formulate policies beneficial to all concerned

I am fully satisfied that the appointment of such a citizens committee will be of inestimable benefit in assisting us in handling a department of our city which is costing our taxpayers more money annually than any other branch of our city government.

I am therefore appointing as such committee the following citizens, to be

REPORTS OF CITY OFFICERS

Traffic Bureau's report for June, 1932, was received and placed on file.

Gas Inspector's report for the month ending June 30th, 1932, was received and placed on file.

July 1st, 1932.

To the Honorable Mayor and City Council.
Lansing, Michigan.
Gentlemen:

The matter of the application of Bessie L. Roberts for the city to pay taxes on Lot 11, G. S. French's Subdivision, has been referred to me for attention.

Upon investigation I find that this property has been assessed at the value of $5,200.00. The amount of taxes requested to be paid by the city are $594.95. The premises are mortgaged for $2,250.00, bearing interest at seven percent annually, and there is one year's interest due upon this mortgage and unpaid.

The statement in the application of the reason for inability to pay the taxes is correct. There is probably an equity in the property of near $3,000.00.

The applicant is not steadily employed at this time and I am unable to give any information as to her ability to refund these taxes to the city and release the lien for taxes. I believe there is a sufficient margin of safety to secure the city, but it will be understood that the lien for the city taxes in the event they are paid, will be a second lien on the premises.

Very respectfully,
RICHARD RAUDABAUGH,
City Attorney.

Received and placed on file.

July 1st, 1932.

Honorable Mayor and City Council of the City of Lansing,
Gentlemen:

At the last regular meeting of this Council, held on the 27th day of June last, a claim was filed with the City by Robert E. Hackett on lot 105, Westmoreland Addition, for $1,850.00 for the conversion of this lot by the City of Lansing. This claim was referred to the city attorney for attention.

On the 7th day of June, 1932, this claimant filed a claim with the City of Lansing in connection with this lot for use and occupation thereof, and claimed as damages therefore the sum of $1,600.00.

By the claim filed on the 27th day of June with this body, he now abandons the claim for use and occupation and claims that the East 13 feet of this lot has been converted by the City of Lansing for the extension of Howe Street, and claims the value of the entire lot because by the conversion of the East 13 feet, the remaining 24 feet of said lot have been rendered useless.

There have been negotiations pending at times since 1929 to acquire lot 105, Westmoreland, by purchase, and in September, 1929, at a meeting of the council a resolution was passed authorizing the purchase thereof for the sum of $2,000.00. This resolution was vetoed by the mayor and never passed over the veto but was laid on the table and there remains.

Other negotiations have been had in reference to these premises in the last year but so far as is known nothing was ever done more than to talk about it. This lot is situated at the southwest corner of Shiawassee and Howe Streets and is thirty-seven feet wide. There was a sidewalk built along the east side of it some years ago and torn up, since which time, so far as the city is concerned, no public use was ever made of the lot and nothing has ever been done except at intervals there has been attempts to sell the lot to the city.

Based upon those facts, I am of the opinion that neither of the claims presented by Mr. Hackett of this city are such claims as ought to be acknowledged as legal against the city. I can conceive of no way in which this city as a municipal corporation, could so occupy this property as to render us liable for use and occupation, nor do I think there has been any conversion of it by the city.

The fact that a sign post is posted at the west side of this proposed thirteen feet that the city proposed to buy at one time, is of no significance. It shows neither occupation nor intention to occupy.

The fact that the public generally have used the lot as a shortcut around the sidewalk is not an occupation or a conversion by the city. There is nothing on the records in the proceedings of this council relative thereto which in any way justifies the allowance of plaintiff's claim, either for use and occupation or for the conversion.

It has been stated in this claim that the City of Lansing, through its building department, has refused a building permit for this lot. Searching in the building department's office, I find no such record.

I find no reason for allowing this claim.

Yours very respectfully,
RICHARD RAUDABAUGH,
City Attorney.

Received and placed on file.

REPORTS OF CITY OFFICERS

Alderman Thoman submitted the following suggestions for reducing the Police and Fide Department budgets:

PRESENT BUDGETS FOR LANSING POLICE AND FIRE DEPARTMENTS AND PROPOSED BUDGETS FOR LANSING POLICE AND FIRE DEPARTMENTS

On the following pages will be found the present personnel and salaries of the employes of the Lansing Police and Fire Departments, and a proposed adjustment of personnel and salaries for the same departments.

Wage reductions are based as follows: Salaries (original), $1,200 to $1,799, 15% reduction; $1,800 to $2,499, 20% reduction; $2,500 to $4,999, 25% reduction.

In addition to proposed wage adjustments, a two weeks vacation without pay would equal another 4% reduction.

Relative to reducing the personnel of these departments, the police department could easily be reduced by nine men and be just as efficient as previous to the installation of the radio system. The platoon system in the fire department, as adopted in 1925, should be eliminated. By adopting the program of having all firemen work three days and off one day, 30 men could be eliminated. Although the platoon system is a State law, several other cities are not observing it. If ever brought to a test case it is believed that the State Supreme Court would decide the law unconstitutional on the grounds as interfering with the rights of municipalities as to local self government.

If these proposed budgets became effective, a savings of $35,660.00 a year would be made in the police department and a savings of $74,677.50 a year would be made in the fire department or a total savings of $110,337.50 per year.

Legal Department,

Richard Raudabaugh, City Attorney.
August 12, 1932.

To the City Council of Lansing, Michigan.

Gentlemen:

At a regular meeting of your body, held August 8, 1932, the following resolution was referred to me for an opinion as to its legality.

The resolution reads as follows:

"That all salaried employes included in the budget of the City of Lansing, in the interest of economy, be given a two-weeks vacation without pay, same to be deducted monthly as arranged by department heads with the city comptroller, reduction to start September 1, 1932. This means there will be no paid vacations for this fiscal year, and the manner in which this two weeks vacation is taken will be arranged by department heads, which must be taken before May 1, 1933."

If I understand the resolution correctly, it means that each of the persons affected must take a two-weeks vacation, and must take it during the fiscal year. While it does not state specifically that it is an undertaking to reduce salaries, I have no hesitancy in saying that it will in effect accomplish that purpose, and is an indirect attempt to reduce them. The resolution states that it is intended to apply to all salaries which were fixed by the budget.

Under the provisions of section 144 of the city charter, the city council is required each year to determine by resolution the amount necessary to be raised for general expenses. This council passed the budget on the 25th day of April, last, making appropriations of money for the purposes enumerated in section 144 of the charter. The total amount appropriated was fixed and the items constituting the total were also enumerated. Included in the enumerated items, were the different departments of the city government for which appropriations were made for administrative purposes and which included the employes in each department, stating the number of clerks to be employed and fixing the salary thereof, in those cases where it was not fixed by the charter.

Concurrent with this resolution, there was also a resolution passed on the same evening that the budget was passed, which directed the city assessors to spread the amount appropriated upon the assessment roll of the taxable property in this city.

The charter makes it the duty of the council to determine by resolution this amount, and I am of the opinion that when that amount is fixed, that it cannot be changed during the year for which it was made. If it could be changed for one purpose, it could for others, and there would be no stability and no certainty in the amount of the budget so fixed by the council, and there would be no relation between the amount of the assessment roll which is ordered made for the purpose of determining the amount of taxes, that are to be raised each year, and the amount of the general expenses provided for in the charter; that the very purpose of the charter provisions are to fix that amount so that it could be precisely known what the annual amount of expenditures of the city for general purposes are to be.

According to the provisions of section 129 of the charter, it is the duty of the city council annually, to determine the salary or compensation to be paid to the several officers of the city, not otherwise provided for in the charter. The salary or compensation of any officer elected or appointed by authority of this charter shall not be increased or diminished during the year; and section 3, article 16, of the constitution of Michigan also prohibits the increase or decrease of the salary of public officers after election or appointment. The Courts of this state have uniformly enforced these provisions.

At a meeting of this body held April 25th, last, there was a resolution passed declaring that the city council reserved the right to lower salaries provided for in the budget. This resolution was in plain contravention of the express provisions of the charter, and of the constitution of this state, and was of no force and effect.

The salaries of some of the officers of this city were provided for in the charter. These, I think it will be conceded, cannot be changed by this body and I am of the opinion that in those instances in which the council is authorized to fix the annual salary of an officer, that after it has been once fixed by the council, that they are secure against changes, for the time they are so fixed, as much as if they had been provided for expressly by the charter.

I am of the opinion that those salaries mentioned in this resolution cannot be changed, that is, either increased or decreased during the current year and that the resolution is contrary to the provisions of the charter and the laws of this state, prohibiting such increase or decrease thereof, and that the same is not legal

Very respectfully,
RICHARD RAUDABAUGH,
City Attorney.

Received and placed on file.

To the Mayor and City Council:
In regard to the communication of the Lansing Concrete Vault Company which was referred to the Park and Cemetery Board.

Our Board purchased the rights, forms and equipment to build reinforced, waterproof burial vaults over ten years ago and has a considerable investment at the present time in vaults and eqiupment and has offered this service to our lot owners during this period.

The Board believed then and still contends that the building and handling of such vaults is a cemetery service which is of value to the lot owner, a physical benefit to the cemetery in that it avoids the nuisance and expense of raising graves and a benefit to the cemetery in that it provides work to fill in the spare time of our regular help during quiet spells in our burial program.

The Board is not in commercial competition in that it does not solicit, promote, advertise or in any way interfere or compete with sales outside of our own cemetery.

There were no vaults built in this section when this service was started and we regret that there should be any misunderstanding or criticism of the service which we have given in vault service over the past decade inasmuch as the company named above were familiar with the situation at the time they were organized.

H. Lee Bancroft, Supt.

REPORTS OF OFFICERS

City of Lansing
State of Michigan
Executive Department
Peter F. Gray, Mayor.

September 26th, 1932.

Gentlemen of the Council:

I desire to bring to the attention of the city council at this time, the statewide program of public improvements, which would be provided in municipalities where they are needed by means of federal loans, as suggested at a conference at the capitol, Saturday, between Gov. Wilber M. Brucker and the Michigan Trade Recovery Committee.

While the proposal seems now to be in a tentative stage, it is my opinion that there are several points in the proposed program which merit the careful consideration of members of the council, inasmuch as Lansing has a sewage disposal system to complete, as well as a welfare problem.

In substance the plan apparently calls for federal loans to cities to be used in the financing of public improvements, at a time when the work may be done cheaply and when the employment which would be provided is of utmost importance. It is my understanding that such federal loans, if they can be made, must be secured by a bond issue approved by three-fifths of the voters, and that it might be necessary to obtain approval for operation of the sewage disposal plant on a utility basis.

While there may be reasons why the proposal would not be practicable or advisable for Lansing, it would seem to me that any suggestion which might make possible completion of the local sewage disposal program during the low construction costs, with work being provided for a considerable number of men now on the welfare lists, should at least be studied carefully by members of the council.

While objection has been voiced to borrowing money for improvement programs to provide employment, advocates of the proposal point out that a large proportion of the repayment of the loan, or bond issue, might be made by means of the reduction in the cost of welfare relief which now amounts to almost $10,000 per week in Lansing.

I do not wish to be interpreted as recommending the proposal at this time because it is as yet in a preliminary stage, and there may be objectionable features which would prevent adoption of the plan here.

I do however, wish to call to your attention, the importance of the subject contained in this communication, and I urge a serious consideration of this tentative proposal by this council. It merits a thorough investigation by the proper committee, who should report its findings thereon as to the possibilities of such a program and of its financial soundness.

The result of this investigation may discover some means of relieving the burden of direct welfare relief by providing a substantial amount of employment, and carrying out our sewage disposal program on a sound financial basis.

I request that this communication be referred to the Ways and Means committee for consideration, and that they report their findings to this body at their earliest convenience on the advisability of adopting some definite program relative to this subject.

Respectfully submitted,
PETER F. GRAY,
Mayor.

PFG-H

Referred to the Committee on Ways and Means.

ELECTION COMMITTEE REPORT

Inasmuch as there has been an increase of several thousand in the registered vote of this city and in view of the fact that there will undoubtedly be an unusually large number desiring to vote at the election to be held November 8th, your Committee on Elections believe that our equipment of Voting Machines will be inadequate to handle the vote without great inconvenience to the voters, and make the following recommendations:
1. That 10 Voting Machines be rented at a cost of $125.00 each.
2. That ballots be used in the 14 precincts which had the smallest registered vote at the close of registration preceding the Primary Election. The reason for using ballots in the smallest precincts being that less time would be used in counting ballots after the closing of the polls than in the precincts having a large number of voters.

Your committee therefore will offer two resolutions in order that the Council may express its preference for one of these two recommendations.

E. G. CAMPBELL,
C. E. ROGERS,
JOHN C. MUTZ,
Committee on Elections.

By Ald. E. G. Campbell—
That the report of the committee be adopted.

REPORTS OF CITY OFFICERS

LANSING CITY PLANNING COMMISSION

November 19th, 1932.
Honorable Mayor and City Council,
Lansing, Michigan.

Gentlemen:
Your City Planning Commission respectfully directs your attention to the fact that there is available for immediate purchase, a very good steel truss bridge, suitable for the purpose of providing a crossing over the Cedar River at Elm Street, at an unusually low cost.
This Commission has carefully studied the matter of providing a direct traffic route from the Olds Motor Works district to the East side to relieve traffic congestion on Main Street and South Washington Avenue, and to eliminate dead-end sreets where practicable. This crossing would be a very satisfactory solution of the problem and would provide a necessary and convenient connecting link for a new east and west thoroughfare, most of which is already in use.
We therefore recommend to your Honorable Body that the necessary action be taken to authorize negotiations at the earliest possible date for the purchase of this structure and its erection under the direction of the City Engineering Department and this Commission.
We believe this is the type of project which will afford you an opportunity to create a maximum amount of work for Welfare labor at a minimum of expense

By Ald. Templeton—
